GFSI APPROVAL

PRESS RELEASE

23rd February 2010 - Paris, France

FSSC 22000 gains full approval from GFSI

FSSC 22000 reached a milestone in their history today when it was announced the scheme had met with full recognition by the Global Food Safety Initiative.

23rd February 2010 - The Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI), managed by The Consumer Goods Forum, announced today that the FSSC 22000 scheme, managed by The Foundation for Food Safety Certification, based in the Netherlands has been given full recognition by the Global Food Safety Initiative Board of Directors. This follows an extensive benchmarking process using the requirements laid out in the GFSI Guidance Document Version 5, and an addendum which was issued in December 2009.

GFSI has recognized FSSC 22000 for the scopes of the processing of animal and vegetal perishable products as well as processing of long shelf life ambient products and food ingredients (ref. ISO/TS 22003 Food Chain Category Scopes C, D, E and L (biocultures, additives and vitamins only).

OVERVIEW FSSC 22000

WHO MANAGES FSSC 22000?

Foundation FSSC is the owner of the FSSC 22000 Scheme for the certification of Food Safety Management Systems.

The FSSC 22000 Scheme is governed by an independent Board of Stakeholders.

An Advisory Committee ensures transparency and involvement of the consumer goods industry and related supply chain.

The Advisory Committee advises the Board of Stakeholders.

VERSION 6 HIGHLIGHTS

- Additional food loss and waste requirements support a silo-breaking approach contributing towards the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
- Incorporates quality control parameters and food safety & quality culture into the Scheme.
- Enhanced measures to aid in certificate authenticity, such as adding a QR code to each certificate.
- Extension of scope with category FII for trading and brokering.
